

The 2nd International Workshop on High Intensity Electron-Positron Accelerator (HIEPA) @ 2-7GeV in China (HIEPA2018)

March 19-21, 2018, Yanqihu campus,

University of Chinese Academy of Sciences (UCAS), Beijing, China

Travel information:

The UCAS Yuquanlu Campus is neighbour to the IHEP, Beijing (See attachment #1). It is very convenient to commute to the Yuquanlu Campus from the international airport or railway station in public transportations or taxi. However, the UCAS Yanqihu Campus locates in suburban area and is not that convenient.

To arrive at the ICC in Yanqihu Campus

Arrival shuttle bus will be arranged for transportation from the UCAS Yuquanlu Campus and Peking University to the ICC. In the UCAS Yuquanlu Campus, the bus will stop at the west side near to the south gate of the Yuquanlu Campus. For the stop in the Peking University, it will be announced later.

timetable for shuttle buses:

- 13:00 pm, March 18 (from the UCAS Yuquanlu Campus)
- 13:30 pm, March 18 (from the Peking University)
- 19:00 pm, March 18 (from the UCAS Yuquanlu Campus)

Please reserve bust seat in the online registration form.

We strongly recommend you to take the workshop shuttle buses. In case you don't, taxi should be the second choice. Please show taxi driver the Chinese notes in attachment #2, AFTER you get in the taxi. There is a government rule that the taxi driver can not reject the service if passenger gets in the car. Rough taxi charge will be:

- from Beijing international airport to the ICC in UCAS Yanqihu Campus: ~¥270 RMB (show the driver the route map in attachment #2)

- from the Yuquanlu Campus to the ICC: ~¥300 RMB

To depart from the ICC in Yanqihu Campus

Departure shuttle buses will be scheduled from the ICC to the Yuquanlu Campus and to airport. The buses will be arranged at 19:00 PM on March 21 and at 10:00AM on March 22.

There will be limited taxi cars available running from the ICC to the airport. It costs ¥300RMB. You may ask the LOC staff to make a reservation.

In case you want to leave the campus in other ways, please consult any LOC staff.

Excursion:

We will organize a sightseeing trip on March 22, the day right after the workshop agenda. The trip fee will be charged separately during onsite registration. The trip plan takes one day, including visits to the Mutianyu Great Wall (慕田峪长城) and the Hongluo Temple (红螺寺). The workshop excursion group will take the trip bus in the front of the ICC. After excursion, the travel bus will drop at the ICC, and later at the international airport and the Yuquanlu Campus. Detailed information will be announced later.
